Inclusion & Diversity

"As the new Senior Partner of the Firm, I am acutely aware that our vision and values are built around the word 'personal'. We are a people business dependent on brilliant client relationships. Inclusion and diversity objectives are therefore not 'soft' business aspirations, they are fundamental to our success"

Sunil Sheth, Senior Partner

I&D - Our focus

We know that to achieve our inclusion and diversity objectives we need to focus on a number of areas:

- Developing a diverse leadership - we have a mix of different ethnicity and genders on our leadership groups. We are working hard to improve the gender balance of our partner team and in the last 18 months 4 out of 9 people joining the partnership were women.
- Attracting a diverse work force. This means adopting a properly personal approach when connecting with those interested in joining our team including: ensuring fairness in our processes; working with those, like recruiters, who help us in this; a commitment that you will always meet male and female talent in our recruitment interviews;
- Engaging with everyone in our team to ensure they are heard, supported and understood. Encourage everyone to develop their own voice in shaping our culture, their future and our service to clients. That might be working flexibly or that might be a specific career programme - everyone needs different things at different times.
- Helping all our people in all roles to achieve their full potential. We provide training, coaching, internal mentors and buddies, whatever works for each individual and their own personal development path.

For everyone including our clients we are striving to:

- Ensure that contact with us, including for example at events we organise, is always inclusive and appropriate for all, all preferences will be catered for.
- Endeavour to ensure our teams working on different client matters reflect the right balance of gender and ethnicity.
- Develop and support our client's own inclusivity and diversity objectives by running industry specific workshops and seminars together.
- Have regular open conversations with clients about progress around inclusion and diversity.
