Overview

Alexander Wildschütz is a partner in the Dispute Resolution department at Fladgate.

Alexander specialises in commercial disputes with a particular expertise in cross-border matters including disputes over jurisdiction and applicable law, the enforcement of foreign judgments and contentious insolvency matters involving international elements. He has many years of experience advising on contractual disputes and corporate related issues including shareholder disputes.

Alexander represents companies and individuals from all commercial sectors, from manufacturers, suppliers, distributors and retail businesses to banks and other financial institutions. His international practice has a focus on advising German, Swiss and Austrian clients.

In Chambers Global, Alexander is recommended as an “Expert Based Abroad” in Dispute Resolution in Germany and as a “Foreign Expert” in Dispute Resolution in the UK. He is also recommended by The Legal 500 for banking litigation and commercial litigation work.

Alexander is fluent in German and dual-qualified as a solicitor in England and Wales and as a German Rechtsanwalt.

Testimonials

“Fladgate LLP acts in property sector related banking disputes, financial services claims, and international banking cases. Simon Brew and Alexander Wildschütz are key advisers.”

Legal 500 2016

Fladgate LLP acted for a group of retail and institutional investors in litigation against RBS arising from its rights issue. Simon Ekins and Simon Brew are recommended alongside Mark Buckley, who is ‘a great tactician’, Bree Taylor, who is ‘a tough, smart litigator’, and the ‘exceptional’ Steven Mash. Alexander Wildschütz, David Weare and Digby Hebbard are also well regarded.

Legal 500 2016

“According to sources, Alexander Wildschütz of Fladgate LLP is ‘a practical lawyer who is well attuned to the realities of the situation’. He is dual-qualified as a German Rechtsanwalt and a solicitor in England and Wales, and regularly advises on cross-border litigation.”

Chambers Global 2015

“Fladgate LLP recently represented a group of private investors against the VEB Bank of Russia in claims exceeding £25m, concerning bonds on which the debtors defaulted. Paul Howcroft, Simon Brew and Alexander Wildschütz are recommended.”

Legal 500 2014

“German Rechtsanwalt and English-qualified solicitor Alexander Wildschütz of Fladgate LLP handles a range of disputes for Central European clients, and is singled out by independent sources for his work for German banks.”

Chambers Global 2013

“Fladgate LLP’s ‘level of service is exemplary’. Simon Ekins, Simon Brew and Alexander Wildschütz are highly regarded.”

Legal 500 2017

Fladgate LLP has ‘good-quality litigators for all commercial areas’. The practice is largely conflict free and able to act against most banks in financial services-related litigation...key advisers include Simon Brew, Alexander Wildschütz, construction law
