Overview

Graham Spitz is a partner in the corporate department at Fladgate.

He specialises in a wide range of corporate work including private equity, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, reorganisations and corporate governance.

Graham has particular experience in the technology, retail, insurance and engineering sectors. In addition, he has advised on the corporate aspects of numerous property acquisitions and disposals and property related joint ventures.

He acted for the lead group of financial investors (comprising the private equity firms Zouk Capital, Index Ventures, 83North, Creandum and Northzone) on the sale of their entire interest in iZettle to PayPal Holdings with a total deal value of US$2.2bn.

Graham is regularly recommended by the independent guides to the legal profession, with Legal 500 describing him as “very smart” and “efficient”.

He qualified in 1996 and became a partner at an international firm in 2004 before joining Fladgate in 2015.
