Overview

Kelly Whiter is a partner in the immigration department at Fladgate.

She specialises in advising high net worth and ultra-high net worth individuals, their family members and businesses on all aspects of immigration covering investors, entrepreneurs, sponsor licences and Tier 2 visas, family applications, British nationality, applications under EU law and settlement, including discretionary applications outside the Immigration Rules.

Kelly is named in The Chambers HNW Guide 2019, The Legal 500 2019, Who's Who Legal 2019 and the Citywealth Leaders List 2019 as a leading lawyer in the field of immigration.

She has been advising clients on immigration matters for over 15 years and adopts a holistic, non-litigious approach, ensuring short-term goals, financial considerations, family and long-term intentions are all taken into account.

Experience

- Successfully obtained British citizenship on a discretionary basis for clients who were unable to meet the residence criteria.
- Successfully overturned a Tier 1 Entrepreneur refusal without the need for a formal Administrative Review application.
- Successfully obtained settlement in the UK in cases where there were excessive absences on an exceptional and discretionary basis.
- Successfully overturned mandatory ten-year bans from entering the UK and obtained visas for clients with adverse immigration history and previous visa refusals.
