Overview

Oliver Tobin is an associate in the real estate department at Fladgate.

He specialises in contentious and non-contentious construction work including advising on developments, acquisitions and construction disputes.

Oliver acts for a number of developers, contractors and lenders in the residential and commercial property, hotels, public attractions and energy and waste sectors. He also acts for range of clients in court litigation, adjudication and arbitration proceedings.

Oliver advised on the construction aspects of Harbor Group International's £48m acquisition and financing of 6-8 Bouverie Street, London EC4.

He qualified in 2017, having joined Fladgate as a trainee solicitor in 2015.
