Overview

Soraya Sohal is an associate in the private client team at Fladgate.

She specialises in UK tax planning, particularly in relation to the structuring of asset acquisitions and asset transfers to minimise tax liability.

Soraya mainly acts for high net worth non-UK domiciled individuals looking for succession planning advice as well as advising trustees on all aspects of administering estates and trusts.

An example of a transaction that Soraya has dealt with is negotiating the suspension of a tax penalty following a tax investigation by HMRC.

Soraya is a Chartered Legal Executive and is a full member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners having obtained the STEP Diploma in International Trust Management.

She is a law graduate from King's College London and is fluent in both French and Russian.
