Overview

Zehra Kofturcu is a senior associate in the corporate department at Fladgate.

She acts for both UK and international clients on a broad range of general corporate matters including managing high value multi-jurisdictional transactions.

Zehra's background includes advising nominated advisors, brokers and companies alike on AIM IPOs and secondary fundraisings. She also has particular experience in private equity (including start-ups), M&A transactions and joint ventures and investments, predominantly in the natural resources and life sciences sectors.

Zehra qualified in 2010 and joined Fladgate as an associate in the corporate team in January 2016, becoming a senior associate in April 2017.
